

JUST A GAME OF POKER

*Life is just a game of poker;
Happiness is the pot.
Fate deals us all five cards, and
We play whether we like it or not.
Some are dealt with a pat hand,
Others with only a pair.
Some are beat before the draw, and it
Doesn't always seem on the square.
Me, I was just a gambler of misfortune.
I took to drinking and sin.
Seemed like I was always waiting –
For a ship, that would never come in!*

*But my ship did come in!
That is the ship of eternal life and
Heaven with all its joys.
I got to meet the Captain of that ship
And His name is Jesus!*
